

We are very satisfied with Wisconsin's No-Call law, and would feel infringed upon if a Federal Agency were to weaken this law so that Banks can call us. Right now, I get several mailings from banks wanting me to take their credit cards which I have to shred. I don't think they need any additional ways to bother us. Thank you.